Zeum Media Arts Museum (San Francisco)

8:00 AM – 5:00 PM • Adults: $25, Youth (12 & under): $10
SIGN-UP DEADLINE: JANUARY 6

Zeum offers highly interactive, multi-generational exhibits that focus on five core arts and media subjects: Animation, Video Production, Sound Production, Performance and Visual Arts. There are two floors and six spaces to explore! At Zeum, YOU drive the experience, using arts and technology tools with the power of your imagination to create a clay animation, make a music video, and compose a soundtrack or experiment with digital art. Whether you're a novice or an expert, Zeum provides the tools and guidance you need to feel like a pro at every stage in the learning process. And when you're done, you'll have something unique to take home with you. What will you create? (Check out www.zeum.org for more information)

Ski Shuttles with Snowboard Lessons

OAC offers snowboard lessons on select ski shuttles. From beginner riders who know nothing about snowboarding to experienced riders who want to learn more.

Carl Miller Yurt Overnight X-Country Ski/ Snowshoe Trip

DEPART: JANUARY 9, 6:30 AM – RETURN: JANUARY 10, 7:30 PM
Cost: $60 • Ages: 16 & older • SIGN-UP DEADLINE: JANUARY 6

Do you love to camp in the summer, but not the winter because it's too cold? Fear no more! A Yurt is a backcountry hut complete with wood stove to keep you warm. We will ski or snowshoe the flats of Colby Meadows, and for those of you who wish to be adventurous, you can ski to the Colby lookout tower. When the day is over we can sit around the fire in short sleeve shirts, tell stories and drink hot cocoa. We'll cook up something warm for both breakfast and dinner, too! The ski/shoe adventure to the Yurt is about two miles and is great for beginners and experts, alike. Cost includes transportation, lodging, breakfast & dinner, cross country ski or snowshoe gear. You provide snacks and lunches. Note: "Bathroom facilities" are very rustic. There is a mandatory pre-trip meeting, Wednesday, Jan. 6, 5:00pm at the OAC.
